SHOWERS COME FROM TEXAS

They Will Be Much Like Showers From Any Other State and Will Not Be Especially Severe.

Showers from Texas are promised to the people of St. Louis Monday night and Tuesday. There is no prospect of a heavy storm, according to the prognosticators, but no weather bureau will assume the responsibility of predicting the exact behavior or extent of "showers." The public must take chances on that.
Here is the prediction:
"Threatening with showers Monday night and Tuesday;
stationary temperature."
The first of the showers has reached Oklahoma and southern Kansas and is expected to pass over the western part of Missouri by Tuesday morning, making itself felt also in sections further east.

The storm that has been doing so much damage in the East has passed off from the north Atlantic coast, although it is still leaving disturbances behind it. There is some rain in the New England states.
The Texas rain is spreading over the country east of the Rocky mountains. The temperature generally shows no important change.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 12.—The game

HID IN CLOSED FOLDING BED

Boy of Six Falls Asleep in Narrow Quarters After Playing Joke on Mother and Neighbors.

Six-year-old August Borgaard, son of the chef who prepared Prince Henry's St.
Louis breakfast, played "hide and seek" in his room, the street, with such success that the entire police force of St.
Louis could not find him for nearly half an hour.

August chose as his place to "hide" the fold of the mattress in his little closed folding bed. "Mamma can't find me here," he said to himself as he crept into the fold.

And he couldn't. August heard her looking and calling. It was great fun. After a few minutes her search took her to another part of the house. Her calls came to him faintly. It was greater fun.
But the hiding place was snug and warm; and August is a little fellow, and a great favorite with the Sand Man. So with his mother's voice coming to him as an echo he fell asleep.

Mrs. Borgaard searched, as she thought, everywhere. When she could not find the child she reported to the police that he had run away.

BLAMES HUSBAND FOR IMPRISONMENT

Mrs. Clara Taylor Files Answer to Suit of Asylum's Head for Possession of Her.

DECLARES SHE IS NOT INSANE

Avers That Her Husband Has Misused Her Funds While She Has Been Held in St. Vincent's.

Clara Taylor now out on furlough, filed her answer to the petition of Sister Mary Magdalen, president of the St. Vincent's Institution for the Insane, who desires possession of her, in the Circuit court at St. Louis Monday morning. She denies that she has ever been legally declared insane and states that she is now in hiding from her husband.

She asserts that her husband is not devoted to her, that he endeavored to get possession of certain bank stocks held by her, and that she was confined, at his instance, in the St. Vincent's Institution, forcibly and against her will.

During the time she was in this asylum she avers that her husband took her stocks, transferred them to other parties, and did not, as she claims he said he had done, place the money received therefrom to her credit in the St. Louis Trust Co.

She states, also, that she was poorly attended at the asylum in which she was confined and that her health was impaired during her residence there.

She states, finally, that friends have agreed to care for her and requests her permanent discharge.

ARCHBISHOP IS AT DEATH'S DOOR

Physicians Say the Last Spark of Life May Vanish at Any Moment.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 12.—Archbishop John A. Hughes was still alive at 1 o'clock today, but the spark of life was so small that the doctors say it may go out at any moment.

Probably the last person the archbishop recognized was Cardinal Gibbons, when his sufferings visited him at St. Anne's, yesterday afternoon, he was taken to the archbishop's residence, where he was attended gently and tenderly. "Do you recognize me?" With an effort the archbishop roused himself and answered "yes," then he relaxed into a comatose state and has not since entirely regained consciousness.

indictments will be returned in the course of a few days and that among those involved is a police captain and a politician of some local prominence.

Between 15 and 20 witnesses will be examined today and tomorrow.

MANILA, Oct. 12.—Lieut. Velasquez, with 30 men of the constabulary, were attacked caya and lost two men, after killing 53 and hunters. The enemy were armed with rifles

SHE MARRIED "FOR SPITE"

When Wife Avowed This Fact Much Trouble Followed.

Eleven years ago Marie Winger, daughter of a wealthy food manufacturer of Quincy, Ill., married Herbert Gaining, a painter, for spite, she says. Last week in a fit of anger, she told him about it, and he refuses her arrest Sunday to her frankness.

Mrs. Gaining was taken into custody upon a charge of disturbing the peace in company with John Bird, a hotel porter.
Judge Tracy ordered them both in the City Hall Police Court Monday morning.
As there was no evidence of disturbance, they were released.

SLEEPY MAN CAUSES FIGHT

When Young Men Laughed at His Snoring Armed Guard Took Up the Cause of Order.

A drunken man, a young man, a guy rope, a sergeant-at-arms and a revolver formed a combination which was productive of a diversion at a tent meeting Saturday night, the finale being enacted in the Dayton Street Police Court Monday morning.

The drunken man was not in court. He was an entirely innocent cause of it all, and when the excitement was over disappeared as suddenly and as mysteriously as he had appeared. The young man and the guy rope were the beginning of the actual trouble. They attracted the sergeant-at-arms, who flourished a revolver.
A policeman, Judge Pollard and a judicial lectured all the rest.

The tent meeting was at Carter avenue and Pleasant street, which latter thoroughfare has heretofore attracted attention through the dissimilarity between its name and unpleasant incidents in the lives of its residents. Rev. Mr. Dean has been conducting evangelistic services nightly. Saturday night he was assisted by Rev. Mr.
Kerns.

While the congregation was singing "Count All Your Blessings" the drunken man wandered in, wove a waltz with himself, and began to snore. He was not so far from the rest of the tent that he escaped the notice of the reverend young men, and did not know that he was being gazed at.

Mr. Kerns stopped the singing and roundly reprimanded the man. He was carried conduct, and instructed Daniel S. Chiles of 367 North Eleventh street, the sergeant-at-arms, to preserve order, and from Grace.

nues Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

The Jefferson avenue car was thrown from the track. Motorist John McCarthy of 2715 Allen avenue, motorist of the other car, was cut on the head by a fracture of his right hip. He was taken to the Polyclinic Hospital at Jefferson and Lucas avenues.

late Viscount Cranborne) will enter the cabinet as Lord Privy Seal, the office held by his father until his retirement last year, when Mr. Balfour assumed the post of prime minister, has been received. The Marquis of Salisbury took the position, it is said, with reluctance.

The cabinet now consists of 15 members.

about him. She reported his disappearance to the police.

RUSSIA AND JAPAN SEEM TO BE ON EVE OF A CONFLICT OVER

COREA AND THE SCENE OF THE EXPECTED WAR IN THE FAR EAST

Corea is not much larger than Missouri. It juts out from the continent of Asia in a southerly direction, between Japan and China, with the Yellow Sea on one side and the Sea of Japan on the other. The average width is 135 miles, and the whole length is about 600 miles. The native name for the country is Teyson, of which the Chinese call it Kao Lee. The Japanese call it Korea, from which comes the English name.

Manchuria, which according to the dispatches, has been occupied by Japanese troops, does not appear on any of the current maps of Corea, but it is a fine harbor about twenty miles from Fusan, the principal port of southern Corea, and within easy striking distance of the island of Tsushima, one of Japan's advance military bases.

In Judge Kiebler's Wyoming street court Monday morning, William Schmaltz told the story of one strenuous afternoon, how he won $5, promptly received a terrible beating for doing so and topped off affairs by falling into the hands of an unfeeling policeman, who arrested him for distur-

Judge Tracy, in the City Hall police court, suddenly raised the limit of a 5-cent game of pitch Monday morning. It cost the four players in the game only 5 cents to get in, but 20 and costs to get out.
Mrs. Edwards, John Rutledge, Silas

A policeman saw them at it. They tried to escape, but they were caught. They put up a

THE SITUATION

If war comes between Russia and Japan it will be for possession of Corea/Russia was to have begun the expulsion of Manchuria Oct. 8. She failed and will hold that Chinese territory long ago determined to take if Russia kept Manchuria.
Russia wants Corea as well as Manchuria, and she means to keep Japan from getting it.

BERLIN, Oct. 12.—A dispatch from Shanghai to the Frankfurter Zeitung that news has reached there from Corea that the Japanese have occupied a port, a port of Corea, and that an declaration of war is expected.

The relation between Japan and Russia has reached a crisis, according to the field view here. The exact nature of diplomatic exchanges between the two governments that brought out the present situation appear to be unknown at the of the two countries here or at the main legations at St. Petersburg and Tokyo, although it is understood that Great Britain is privy to Japan's movements.

FEAR THAT CLASH WOULD SOON INVOLVE ALL OF EUROPE

LONDON, Oct. 12.—In spite of the reassuring statements of the foreign office and Baron Hayashi the frequent reiteration that hostilities between Russia and Japan are imminent, the nervousness of the Russian and Japanese public and the excited state of public opinion Japan's beginning to cause disquiet Great Britain, which by reason of her ally-ship with Japan, is so intimately concerned in any action which the latter may take in the far East. Only the most sanguine persons believe that in the event of hostilities they could be kept within the limits which would free Great Britain from her obligation to support her Japanese ally. Even Baron Hayashi, who heretofore has ridiculed all suggestions of war, is not so optimistic today. Indirectly, he admits the possibility of war by expressing the hope that in the event of a crisis, Japan will have the active sympathy of her ally, Great Britain.

While refusing to credit the reports of an ultimatum having been delivered, Baron Hayashi admitted that the diplomatic situation had changed since Oct. 8, and that developments may have arisen from the failure of the Russians to fulfill their engagement to evacuate Manchuria on that date. He, however, had heard nothing from his government on the subject.

AT WASHINGTON MOVES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Aside from extensive military preparations by both nations, the Japanese legation here is not advised that either Russia or Japan has asset committed any act of war. The Japanese minister is being kept constantly advised by cablegrams from Tokyo of the situation, and realizing its gravity, he is moving with great caution.

Negotiations between Russia and Japan, according to his advisers, are still in progress and there is hope of a diplomatic settlement of the questions at issue. The minister today authorized the Associated Press to make the following statement:

"The attention having been called to a certain unauthorized statement attributed to him that the public utterances of the Japanese people are all in favor of war with Russia, Mr. Kogoro Takahira, the Japanese minister, states that while there is some disquiet due to the unsettled state of affairs which has existed so long in the far East, it seems that it has been aggravated more recently by the unfounded progress of the military and naval movements regarding military and naval movements in certain quarters, but in his judgment the intelligent section of the Japanese public has been generally calm and collected up to the present juncture, and they know that the matter has been settled in the hands of responsible parties of Japan and Russia, and that they have been negotiating with a view of arriving at an understanding between themselves for the best, for the situation is not without indication, so far, that the Russian government is easily disposed for a settlement of the question with Japan and that there is as much as the negotiations are proceeding with reasonable promise of a result favorable to Japan there is reason to be over anxious now."

"The minister said the minister, 'that the situation is not without indication, so far, that the Russian government is easily disposed for a settlement of the question with Japan and that there is as much as the negotiations are proceeding with reasonable promise of a result favorable to Japan there is reason to be over anxious now.'"

The representatives of this government in the capitals of Russia, Japan and China are all in the city.

THE MAN IN THE STREET

And a Little Child Shall Lead Them
A phenomenon of unusual importance to our city existence was revealed by the announcement that little Hazel Dolson of 36 North Sixth street had received the Civic Improvement League's first prize for the most improved backyard. Therein lies revelation, a prophecy, an evidence that the new St. Louis of which we have dreamed is to be realized. And it is the little Hazel Dolson who will bring it about. Of course, we must thank the ever active Civic Improvement League for inspiring the labors of these little ones, and be grateful also to the women who have so devotedly fostered the ideals of civic betterment, but after all, without the active work of the Hazel Dolsons, there had been little. Grown ups are good at directing, but when they are called upon to execute, they soon grow weary. They preach better than they practice. It is the children, however, who have the patience, the perseverance to work out their ideas. Not all children, however. A boy here and there, and several little Hazels. Children who have been convinced that they have a mission.

A TRUE REFORMER.

FOLK WILL ARGUE BUTLER'S APPEAL

Supreme Court Takes Up the Hearing of His Conviction for Attempted Bribery.

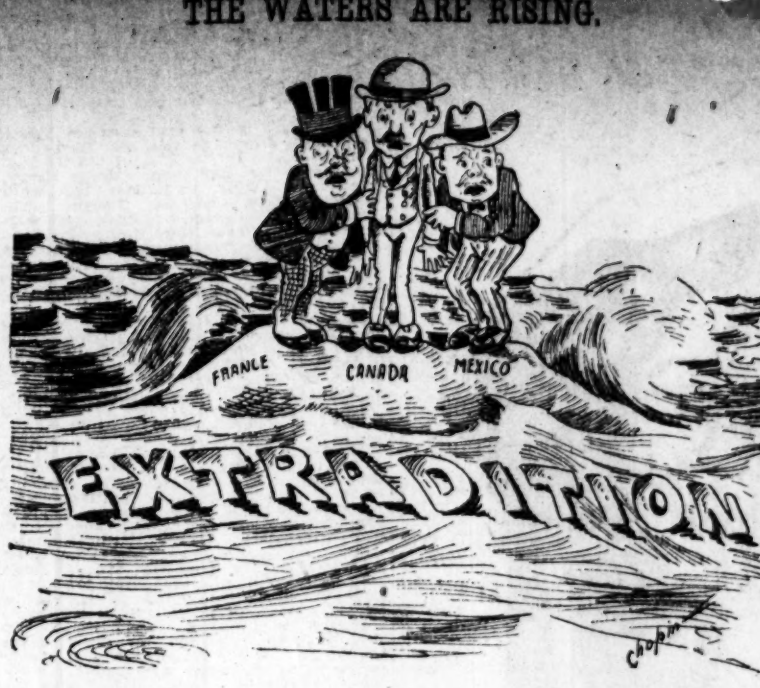

Circuit Attorney Folk will leave Monday night for Jefferson City, where, on Tuesday, he will personally argue before the Supreme Court the appeal of Edward Butler from the decision of the Circuit Court at Columbia.
Butler was convicted of offering $2500 to Dr. Merrill and Chapman after the Board of Health had given the garbage collecting contract to Butler's company. The appeal is based on the contention that the board had no authority to grant such a contract. The state holds that Butler's acceptance of the contract made his offense, both technically and morally, an attempt at bribery.
If Butler's contention is sustained the case against him will be thrown out of court, and no new trial will be possible.
The next trial of Butler would be on the indictment charging bribery in connection with the lighting deal. This case has been taken to Fulton on a change of venue.

There will be no boodle trials in St. Louis until November. When Charles F. Kelly, former speaker of the House of Delegates, will be placed on trial for bribery. He has already been convicted of bribery. The grand jury, meantime, will devote itself to routine business.
Mr. Folk has already taken up by correspondence, the matter of the return of Charles Kratz under the opinion of Attorney-General Knox that the treaty with Mexico is retroactive, and that reciprocity can be promised to the Mexican authorities.

ROBBERS ACTIVE, ARRESTS MADE

Four Out of Five Highwaymen Succeeded in Securing Valuables by Using Weapons.

A fusillade followed the attempt of a negro to rob Aloys J. Naunheim of 3332 Bailey avenue, and the startled highwayman took to his heels down Franklin avenue, near Ninth street, while Mr. Naunheim emptied a revolver at him. One shot took effect, according to Naunheim, who was arrested.
Two negroes robbed Benjamin J. Moore, aged 14, of 335 Park avenue, as he was passing a vacant lot on Washington avenue near Fourteenth street. They took his gold watch and some change.
Napoleon B. Ellis of East St. Louis was stopped by a negro and robbed of a watch and 20 cents on the levee near Washington avenue. He was knocked down by the highwayman. In the afternoon James Robertson, aged 17, was arrested and charged with the crime. Ellis identified him.
Ezra Stradman reported that he was assaulted and robbed of $5 by Joseph Lewis, aged 25, while walking along Twenty-first street. Lewis is under arrest.
Felix Wiener of 274 Sheridan avenue, an express company collector, reported that he was robbed of $4 Sunday night by two negroes at Elliott and Jefferson avenues. The money belonged to the company. Pistols were used by the highwaymen.
Frank Lynch sustained a fractured skull as the result of an attack made on him by two men at Seventh and Chestnut streets Sunday morning. H. H. Woods and William Schmidt state that the assailants of Lynch ran out of a saloon nearby and assaulted him without provocation.
The police have made a number of arrests in connection with the robberies.

DYING ARCHBISHOP RECEIVES CARDINAL

Physicians Declare Mgr. Kain Can Live but a Few Hours Longer.

Archbishop Kain of St. Louis is not expected to survive until Tuesday morning, according to word received Monday from his bedside at St. Agnes' Sanitarium in Baltimore.
He suffered a severe chill Sunday afternoon and later sank into a semicomatose state. At midnight he was unconscious and reports Monday indicate that his condition is worse than at any previous time.
It is evident that the archbishop is slowly sinking and his physicians have abandoned hope of prolonging his life. Father Flynn, the prelate's secretary, has also given up hope for his recovery.
Cardinal Gibbons spent two hours at the bedside of the archbishop Sunday afternoon before he became unconscious and was recognized by him.
Earlier reports were so favorable that Cardinal Archbishop Glennon administered confirmation in two churches of St. Charles Sunday, in accordance with appointments made several weeks ago. His other appointments, which may be interrupted, are: Tuesday morning, O'Fallon; Tuesday evening, Dardennes; Wednesday morning, Josephville; Wednesday evening, Plinville; Thursday, St. Paul; Friday, Old Monroe; Saturday, Portage des Sioux; Sunday morning, rededication of the Old Cathedral; Sunday afternoon, confirmation at St. Lawrence O'Toole's Church.

OUR FIRST ANNIVERSARY

JUST a year ago next Wednesday, October 14, The Model Clothing Company began business in St. Louis and fifteen thousand people accepted an invitation to visit the store on the opening day. For four days this week we shall informally celebrate the first anniversary of that occasion, and on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday will give a handsome imported China Souvenir free to all lady visitors between the hours of 2 and 5 each afternoon.

On the eve of this anniversary we wish to thank the people of St. Louis and vicinity for their confidence and patronage, which enabled us within a twelvemonth to build this immense business, unparalleled in the annals of the city. We invite them this week to visit again the store that brought to St. Louis a new order of merchandising and a strong faith in the appreciation of St. Louis people. Quoting from our announcements of a year ago we will repeat the principles of this business—

The Model Sells All Good Grades of Clothing for Men and Boys

It is not a store for any one class—it is a store for all the people. The same effort to satisfy is made whether the purchase is a large or small one—our guarantee applies alike to every article in the store.

Here you will find Men's Suits at $6.50 and up to $35; Men's Overcoats at $5.95 and up to $55; Youths' Suits at $5 to $25; Youths' Overcoats at $7.50 to $25; Boys' Knee-Pants Suits from $2.25 to $12.50, and Men's and Boys' Shoes, Hats and Furnishings at the same complete range of prices.

The Model buys and sells strictly for cash, because it is enabled to sell for less money than any other store. It gives no discounts—no premiums—and never discriminates. "Value" is the basis upon which it does its business and its guarantee is "Absolute satisfaction or money back." Come in this week and see how well it has prepared for your clothing wants of the present season.

Largest Exclusive Clothing House in St. Louis.

"SCAT," SAY POLICE TO TWO "KITTIES"

Twenty-Five Men Appear in Police Court on Charges of "Sitting in" Poker Games.

Twenty-two men charged with gambling in poker games and three men charged with operating the games were arraigned in the First District court Monday morning.

In an echo of a night of activity for Chief Kiley's gambling squad, two games were raided Sunday night. At 226 Eugenia street, the police and detectives found a big game in progress. A lively scramble followed the entrance of the squad, but sixteen prisoners were taken. The police say Harry Turner was running the game and that the other fifteen men were gambling. In the Imperial building, Tenth and Pine streets, a smaller game was in progress. Sam Most and Sam Lowenstein were arrested as the proprietors of the game, and seven men were taken in tow to the hold-over.

Boy Friendship of Long Standing Fled When Demon Jealousy Came In.

YOUNG WOMAN LEAVES CITY

In Fight Which Followed Accusations a Fist and Revolver Figured.

The love of two youths for one maid led to a fist fight, the firing of a revolver, the sudden departure of the girl from the city, a police court trial and the firing of the two young swains by Justice Pollard Monday morning.

William Paul, 18 years old, of 459 Evans avenue, has long divided his affections between his bosom chum, "Bob" Williams, 17, of 417 Evans avenue, and pretty, petite Miss Mamie O'Connell, 19 years old, of 408 Easton avenue. Until three weeks ago Bob had never met the young lady, but William had been enthusiastic in his praises of each to the other.

On the fateful evening three weeks ago, Bob and William, who were both going to a downtown theater. The shortest way was along Easton avenue and by the young lady's house. Miss O'Connell was in the front yard, trimming a rose bush. An introduction, a merry chat and the balmy air of the September evening led the boys to forget the theater and it was 10 o'clock before they started for their homes.

Bob admitted frankly that William had been none too enthusiastic in his praises of the black hair, brown eyes, stylish dress and charming manner of Miss O'Connell, and William felt creeping into his soul the demon of jealousy.

Then the Thought of Jealousy.

Bob became attentive to Miss O'Connell. And then the neighbors began to talk. Mutual friends bore tales to the boys, and their jealousy grew to gnawing stage. Finally William went to Bob and asked him to tell the truth of certain of the tales that he had heard. Bob denied them, and the friendship remained intact. Then there was a conference over the telephone. Saturday night the boys met at Bill's terrace, and William struck Bob across the face, and William struck Bob across the face, and William struck Bob across the face.

Other Participants in Jest Which Will Cost a Life Held by Police as Witnesses.

John Mahalager and Fred Kuhn, both 21 years old, were good friends for a long time. Today Mahalager lies at the City Hospital fatally stabbed, and Kuhn is a prisoner at the Market street police station, charged with the assault.

Which Mahalager played on his friend, Kuhn, the police say, had been drinking and could not appreciate the joke. Kuhn and a young woman went driving Sunday evening. After he had taken her home, Kuhn drove to a saloon at 1834 Herbert street, tied his horse in front of the place and entered. Mahalager and William Twilman, another friend, un hitched the horse and drove around the block. When they returned, laughing at the affair, Kuhn took offense, began quarreling and a fight followed.

Kuhn whipped out his pocket knife during a clinch and drove the blade into Mahalager. It perforated the right side of the abdomen, and physicians say the wounded man has no chance of recovery. Twilman, George H. Dasselmann and George Fisher were locked up at the Dayton street station as witnesses. No charge is made against them. Mahalager's home is at 1908 Sullivan avenue, and Kuhn lives at 3400 Blair avenue.
